

European Digestive Cancer Days 2017

Prospects and Challenges in Prevention, Screening and Therapy

with pre-conference event 'Implementation of Innovations in Early Detection of Chronic Diseases'

Ladislav Dušek, Director of the Institute of Health Information and Statistics of the Czech Republic and Thierry Ponchon, Chair of the Public Affairs Committee of the United European Gastroenterology

In cooperation with

Pavel Poc (Member of the European Parliament), and Institute of Biostatistics and Analyses of the Faculty of Medicine of Masaryk University invite you for the

European Digestive Cancer Days 2017

Prospects and Challenges in Prevention, Screening and Therapy

25 – 27 September 2017

Czech Republic, Prague, Prague Congress Centre

Preliminary scientific programme include:

Monday, 25 September 2017

Prevention, screening and early diagnosis of serious diseases in the light of current evidence and practical experiences – Symposium in Czech language

Tuesday, 26 September 2017

Pancreatic, gastric and other digestive cancers: main challenges and opportunities for screening – Symposium in English language

Wednesday, 27 September 2017

Implementation of colorectal cancer screening programmes in European countries - Symposium in English language

Conference website is available at <http://www.cancer-days.eu>, including online registration form and up-to-date scientific programme

